My dear Mrs. Chapman,

It would give me great pleasure to ask you to establish for me the necessary data on the father of the Jesse Brown (my gr. gr. grandfather) who m., 1795, Mason Haddaway, daughter of Thomas and Mary (Porter) Haddaway of Dinwiddie County, Virginia, but I have at present very little money to spend on genealogical research and, so, would ask you to price your "clue" rather than your rates. You see, you give me no idea of the number of days you would even estimate as sufficient to run this clue to earth.

The will of John Brown, Lunenburg County, Book I, p. 113, signed Aug 22, 1753 and probated Feb. 5, 1754 names John, Valentine, Richard, Manoah, Jesse, and Mary. (wife Jane). Now both Jesse and Manoah had ^{married} ~~sons~~ ^{names} Jesse Brown and Jesse Browns seem to be "rising up" from every county and from far distant States!! Have you any A.D.R. records of Jesse?

You see I'm so anxious to get all possible data back to the original immi-part on all my family lines. I have a number of the lines traced out, but the great number of Jesse Browns confuses me at such a distance from original sources of data. John Brown left Brunswick County and went to Lunenburg.

I think his son Jesse (who in 1764 was listed as a Dilke list with Jesse, Jr.)
must have been the "missing link", but I'd love to have records to prove it. They were in Cornwall Parish of Lunenburg County
in 1764 and Cornwall Parish became Charlotte County in 1765. I'm thinking Jesse, Jr., must have died in Charlotte County and his son Jesse remained to Lunenburg where records show a Jesse in the late 1700's.

Hoping you have some additional data
of a definite nature, I am,

Most sincerely,
Kristine D. Brown.

I had a letter today from another lady in Smithfield who offers to make a search for me. She doesn't mention prices
however — a very big issue in late, old
"broke" Georgia these days! Yours, C.D.B.

My dear Mrs. Chapman,
Your Ann Brown Tucker interests me, ^{and} ^{with} mother Elizabeth sounds so "Brown-ish" that I've been trying to find some link on the tree from which they might have become Tuckers. Every possible group of children had an Ann and Elizabeth right on back into the 1600's, with, of course, Mary holding her place. Jesse and Mason Hardaway Brown m., 1795, had:-

1. Edmund Brown: died unmarried.
2. Washington Hardaway Brown ^{b. 1797} (my gr-grandfather)
3. John Brown: died unmarried
4. William Brown: m. Elizabeth Maddox and had:-
 - a. Martha
 - b. Thomas
 - c. Ann: m. John Williams
 - d. Samuel
 - e. George (son by second wife, who was Elizabeth Barnett):
 1. William:- ???
 2. Ann:- ???

5. Elizabeth Brown: m. Collin Wallace.
6. Ann Brown: m. Hugh Wallace (?)
7. Jane Brown: m. Daniel F. Hatchett
8. Jesse Brown ^{b. 1808}: m. Mary Mery and had:

a. William	b. Marcus
b. Samuel	c. Abelia
c. John	d. Ida
d. Ann: m. Hamlett.	e. Ella
e. Mary
f. Lucy
g. Rach

Phew! Eleven!!

II, THE DAVIDSON-BROWNS

you see. I haven't Jesse Brown's sisters and brothers (the Jesse who married Mason).
He could easily have had a sister Elizabeth Brown who could have married a Tucker and have become the mother of Ann Brown Tucker. I take it that this was her maiden name.

You can see from Jesse and Mason's family how repeatedly Ann and Elizabeth occur. Washington Hardaway Brown had no girls, but his sons named their daughters Ann and Elizabeth ^{and so on} right down to the present day. My father's only sister was Ann Brown.

I'm merely beginning my research. I'm such an amateur (as you can tell), but I do so enjoy finding all the various lines that go so far back into American history - Davidsons, Chases, Merstons, Hendricks, Bells, Pools, Casons, etc., etc.

Mr. Bell is the most generous man with his help and his vast knowledge of any person I've ever known.
Let me look into River Brown's line, and see about the Anns and Elizabeths. He has almost every record from Laurensburg County.
He lives in Martinsville, Virginia and has been lovely to send me data. His line

THE DAVIDSON-BROWNS
SHARON, GEORGIA

descends from the John and mine from the Jesse (I think) mentioned in the will of John Brown, on file in Lunenburg Court House.

Thank you for giving me the name of the Deputy Clerk in Lunenburg. He may be able to give me names and addresses of some of ^{the} Jesse Brown descendants. The Jesse and Mason ones, I mean.

There must have been numerous Jesse Browns.

I've written Rives Brown and I'll let you know if we find your Ann Brown tucked on any of our "limbs" of the tree".

Most sincerely,
Christine W. Brown.

Gustavus Brown, M. D. of "Rich Hill, Charles County, Md. and Laird of Mainside and House Byers, Roxburg, Scotland, B. Dalkeith Scotland April 10, 1689, died of apoplexy at Rich Hill, April 1762. He married first in 1710, Frances Fowke, B. Feb. 2, 1691, D. Nov. 8, 1744; daughter of Col. Gerard Fowke and his wife Sarah Burdett, of Charles County, married second in 1746/7 Margaret (Black) Boyd, widow.

Dr. Brown is supposed to have studied at the University of Edinburg, though his name does not occur in their published catalogue. In his old Prayer Book he recorded, "I came into Maryland May 1708. His first appearance in the Province was as follows:

"When a youth of 19 he became a Surgeon's mate or Surgeon on one of the royal or King's ships that came to the Colony in the Chesapeake Bay, 1708. While his ship lay anchor he went on shore, but before he could return a severe storm arose, which made it ~~impossible~~ necessary for the ship to weigh anchor and put out to sea. The young man was left with nothing but the clothes on his back. He quickly made himself known, and informed the planters of his willingness to serve them if he could be provided with instruments and medicines, leaving them to judge if he was worthy of their confidence. He began his practice of medicine in Nansemond, Md. He soon gained respect and succeeded beyond his expectations. He married into a wealthy family, made a large fortune, and wishing to lay his bones in his own loved Scotland, returned there with his family and became possessed by purchase or inheritance of the land he disposed of in his will. His wife became dissatisfied with Scotland and he returned in 1734 to Maryland, where he had years before purchased "Rich Hill" in Charles County.

Dr. Brown not only acquired an extensive and lucrative practice in Charles County, but he became a prominent man in the affairs of the County.

Mrs. Frances Brown lies buried at "Dipple" on the Potomac River in the County of Stafford, Va., on one of the estates of her son-in-law Rev. James Scott. Her tomb bears this record;

"Here lyeth the body of Frances, the wife of Dr. Gustavus Brown of Charles County, Maryland. By her he had twelve children, of whom one son and seven daughters survive her. She was a daughter of Mr. Gerard Fowke, late of Maryland, and ~~xxxxx~~ descended from the Fowkes of Gunston Hall in Staffordshire, England. Argall Pedigree- Thomas Argall, of St. Faith-the-Virgin, London, esquire, to whom the Manor of Walthamstow was granted in 1553, was an officer of court in 1559. He died in 1563. By his wife Margaret, daughter of John Tallakarne of Cornwall (who remarried in June, 1564, Sir Giles Allington, of Horseheath, Cambridgeshire), he had five sons and one daughter, namely: Richard, (see hereafter), Lawrence, John, Rowland, Gaberell, and Anne.

Anne Argall married, first Thomas Sisley, of Essex; secondly, Augustine Steward, of London, esquire.

Richard Argall, the eldest son, of East Sutton in County Kent, esquire, married twice; the name of his first wife is not known to me. His second wife was Mary, daughter of Sir Reginald St. John, of St. John's, Kent. He died in 1588, leaving five sons and six daughters living, by his second wife, namely:--

1. Thomas Argall, who, with his brother Reginald, were the contestants to the challenge sent by Sir John Scott to Lord Burghley, in April, 1590; which Thomas died in 1605, s. p./

Reginald Argall, of Lincoln's Inn, Middlesex, gent., in 1599 Anne, widow of William Rowe (uncle to Sir Thomas Walthamstow, County Essex, esquire, and daughter of John Rowe, esquire, of Chesham Boys in Buckinghamshire. This was knighted at Hampton Court, August 17, 1606, and died in 1612, s.p.

3. John Argall, of Colchester.

4. Richard Argall. (I take this to be the person of the name "noted in the reign of James I for an excellent divine poet.")

5. Samuel Argall.

1. Elizabeth Argall married Sir Edward Filmore, of East Sutton in Kent, knight.

2. Margaret Argall married Edmund Randolph of Aylesford in Kent, esquire.

3. Mary Argall married Raynold Kempe, of Wye in Kent, esquire.

4. Catherine Argall married Randolphe Bathurst, of Horton in Kent, esquire.

5. Jane Argall married Paul Flettewood, of Roshall in Lancashire, esquire.

6. Sara Argall, sixth daughter.

After the death of Richard Argall in 1588, his widow (Sir Samuel Argall's mother) married Laurence Washington, of Maidstone, Kent, esq (his second wife), and died in 1605. Mr. Washington, who survived her, dying in 1619, was register of the High Court of Chancery. He was the great uncle of the Rev. Laurence Washington, whose son John was the emigrant ancestor of the "Father of his country."

The following monumental inscriptions from East Sutton Church are illustrative of the foregoing pedigree.

"Richard Argall of East Sutton in the County of Kent Esq., deceased anno Domini, 1588, leaving 5 sons and 6 daughters living.
